Rosetta Stone Foundations for Higher Education (TOTALe Bronze)

Description: Rosetta Stone Foundations® is an online, web-based, e-Learning solution designed for beginner to intermediate learners in up to 24 languages within the Rosetta Stone® Language Learning Suite. With Rosetta Stone's context-based, immersion methodology, learners build fundamental language skills.

Foundations® Language Lessons helps students build fundamental language skills through:

- Carefully sequenced lessons that introduce vocabulary and grammar, building upon previously learned content.
- Speech recognition within all lessons and activities that helps improve learners' pronunciation and speaking confidence.
- Immediate feedback on every response.

Foundations® Games and Activities reinforces content previously learned to provide stimulating ways to explore the new language and:

- Encourage students to practice language skills.
- Build confidence, increase engagement, and develop vocabulary learned in core lessons.

Today's learners are surrounded by digital and mobile technology. Our mobile apps provide instructors innovative ways to enrich language learning through already familiar experiences.

- Language Lessons inside and outside the classroom.
- Mobile apps enable learning and practice using iPad®, iPhone®, iPod touch®, and Android™ devices.

Cost: This program is currently offered at no cost to Kennesaw State University employees.

Commitment: Each Rosetta Stone language license is good for six (6) months of service. However, participants must maintain a minimum of 18 hours instruction time every 6 months while they have an active license to be guaranteed continued access in the program.
